Under a sub-contract to Kier Construction Talus carried out refurbishment to the existing dilapidated bus lane in the High Street of Cheltenham. Works involved drainage, kerb lines and York stone paving.

Construction was phased for continued pedestrian access into Cheltenham and to the retail outlets on the High Street.